To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I am recommending Haley Nagy. I am a graphic designer at Sears Holdings and I have worked with Haley, who held the position of designer for the Toughskins girl brand.

Haley would be a great asset to any company looking to hire a designer. She has an innate understanding of the children's wear market and has the passion and drive to achieve the best product within pricing constraints.

She is highly organized and I found her enthusiasm for developing a product from beginning to end to be unmatched. She has a great fashion sense and high taste level, which she incorporates into her design vision no matter how challenging.

Haley would be an exemplary addition to any design team.

Sincerely,

Lucy Thompson
